

The Daily Courant.

Monday, August 24. 1713.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Aug. 26.

Warsaw, July 30.

We have received from all Parts the Confirmation of the News which came last Week, concerning the Treaty between the Czar and the Grand Signior, which was Signed the 25th of June, and that on the 28th the Muscovite Ambassadors sent divers Couriers to their Master, to carry the Treaty to him and desire his Ratification of it; which they are to bring back within 60 Days. We do not yet know all the Terms of the Treaty, we only learn that the King of Sweden is to be conducted with a Guard to his own Dominions through Poland; and that the Czar is not to cause his Troops to enter that Kingdom, provided his Swedish Majesty passes through it peaceably; that the Turks are to possess a certain Extent of Country about Afak; that the Czar is to yield up the Country Situate between the Rivers Orsel and Samara, which fall into the Borysthenes above Porowys, to the Cossacks who espoused the Party of the King of Sweden after the Death of their General Mazeppa; and the Muscovite Ambassadors agreed that the Czar shall set at Liberty several of the principal Officers of the King of Sweden who were taken in the Battle of Pultowa. His Swedish Majesty waits the coming of the Czar's Ratification, before he determines on his Departure.

Hamburg, Aug. 11. The Duke of Mecklenbourg-Swerin who went lately to the Baths of Slangenbade, died the 31st of last Month at Mentz, whither he had removed. Duke Charles, his Brother, having Advice of it, took Possession of the Dutchy the 7th Instant at Swerin; and caused the States of the Country to swear Fidelity to him. A Danish Frigate has passed before the Mouth of the Trave, for Gripswald, laden with Bombs, Grenadoes, and Ammunition of all sorts, which is to be delivered to the Saxons, in Exchange for what King Augustus furnished to the King of Denmark, for the Siege of Staden. Letters from Berlin of the 8th Instant tell us, that General Flemming being ill of a Fever at Berlin, had written to the King of Prussia at Postdam, renewing the Instances which Prince Menzikoff had made, for obtaining of him some heavy Cannon for the Siege of Stettin; but he had received Answer, that his Prussian Majesty would not at all concern himself in the War of the North, on the contrary, would employ all his Cares for terminating it amicably. The like Answer had been returned to Prince Menzikoff, who thereupon finds himself obliged to desire Artillery of King Augustus, and to have it brought to him from Saxony; so that 'tis unlikely it should arrive in Time, the Season being already very much advanced.

Vienna, Aug. 5. The malignant Fevers continue in this City and the Suburbs, which has given Occasion for calling a number of Physicians to consult together, and they have given their Opinion that the Court ought to go and reside some where else. Notwithstanding which, the Archduke persists in his Resolution to stay here yet; and if the Distempers increase, he will remove for some Time to Luxembourg or to Neustad. The 29th of last Month, a Courier from Italy brought the News of the Arrival of Count Staremberg at Genoa, with the greatest part of the Troops which were in Catalonia: The Count is coming hither Post; but 'tis not believed he will be sent to the Army of the Empire.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Aug. 26.

Naples, July 25. Count Daun who has used the Baths several Days, and finds great Benefit by them, has given Order for preparing Quarters for 4000 Germans, of the Number of those which were employed in Catalonia, and which are expected in a few Days from Barcelona. The Spanish Officers and Soldiers who were among the Troops here, and who were unwilling to take a new Oath to the Archduke, are still in the Arsenal, and the Term which was allowed them for retiring, is prolonged. It was proposed to others that they should be distributed into the German Regiments; but they refused it, chusing rather to quit the Service. The Passports which were promised them are granted, and Count Daun has even caused Passports to be offered to those who are not willing to stay in the Kingdom. The Prince de la Torcella is arrived from Vienna, and has brought Count Daun the Collar of the Order of the Golden Fleece, which is to be given him in Ceremony by the Marquis del Vasto. The Tribunals of the Nobility have begun to deliberate on the Propositions which have been made to them by the Elect of the People, for supplying the military Chest; but the Deputations have formed so many Difficulties, that nothing is yet concluded in it. It has only been resolved in the Deliberations held on that Subject, to write anew to the Ambassadors of Naples who are gone to Vienna, after a long Residence at Barcelona, to return as soon as possible, seeing there is no Ground to hope they will obtain what they have so long been kept in hopes of to no purpose. The Mortality among the horned Cattle has begun to rage again in the Terra di Lavoro, and on the Confines of the Ecclesiastical State.

From the Paris Gazette, dated August 26.

Rome, July 29. The 22d of this Month the Pope received the Compliments of many Persons of Distinction, upon his entering thon into the 65th Year of his Age, being born that Day in the Year 1649. The Congregation of Health has assembled several Times, to deliberate on the Advices come from Vienna and Naples, touching the Death of some Persons with Symptoms of the Plague at Corfou and in divers Islands of the Archipelago, which which gives Occasion for taking new Precautions to hinder the spreading of the Plague. It has been resolved to make proper Regulations on that Subject, and Signior Sergardi is chosen Commissary General of Health to see them executed. Last Week Cardinal Acciaioli had a long Audience of the Pope, and asked his Leave to purchase for his Nephew the Palace of the Duke of Modena here which is to be sold, with other Seats and Estates which that Duke has in the Ecclesiastical State. The 27th the Cardinal de la Tremoille had Audience of the Pope, and acquainted him with the King's Nomination of the Bishop of Meaux to the Cardinalship, the first Promotion that shall be made for the Crown.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Aug. 26.

Venice, Aug. 5. The Mortality among the Cattle has begun again to make great Destruction in divers Places, especially at Villabona, Canda, and Castel-Gulielmo, where a great Number have died; which has occasioned the Renewing of the Ordinances published last Year, prohibiting all Communication with the Places infected, and the Roads are stopped up in several Parts. These Precautions appear the more necessary, because Letters from Brescia tell us, that the same Distemper rages in divers Villages of the Brescian, the Cremasque, the Cremonese, the Milaneze, and other Countries of Lombardy.
